"THE MUTT PUTT"

SATURDAY, JUNE 26TH

Roche
Constructors, Inc.

HIGHLAND HILLS
2200 Clubhouse Drive, Greeley

ABOUT 'THE MUTT PUTT'

The Mutt Putt will be an 8:00 a.m. "Shotgun" start on Saturday, June 26, 2010 at Highland Hills Golf Course. The format is a four-man scramble. All proceeds will support The Humane Society of Weld County.

Team registration is $400 and includes green fees, carts, and lunch buffet provided by Bogey's Pub & Grill. The event will include multiple flag prizes for longest drive, longest putt, closest to the pin, etc. and of course a whole lot of fun!

No regulation on handicaps. Mulligans will be available for a $5 donation, maximum 2 per player. Prizes awarded for winning teams and flag contests.

Discover the beauty of old style golf at Highland Hills Gold Course in Greeley and experience the Par 71, 18-Hole Championship golf course that features tree lined fairways, rolling hills, and challenging greens. Highland Hills is a course of Haunting Beauty, Spectacular Views, and Unsurpassed Service.

ABOUT THE HUMANE SOCIETY,

The Humane Society of Weld County is the only independent open-admission, non-profit animal shelter in Weld County.

In addition to offering temporary shelter for strays and unwanted pets, we conduct adoptions, and provide foster care. Our clinic provides low cost vaccination clinics and low cost spay/neuter services to decrease the number of unwanted animals and increase the overall health of the animal population in Weld County.
